Word Counts: Original: 142 | Required (1/3): 47 | Student: 12

Total Marks: 4.0/20

Criterion	Marks Allocated	Marks Awarded	Key Comments
Comprehension & Understanding of Passage	3	0.0	Misinterprets passage; omits drop's reflection, oyster incident, pearl formation, and final status on crown.
Clarity, Expression & Language	3	0.0	Unclear and confusing; garbled phrasing like 'into sad its tiny' lacks coherence and grammar.
Brevity & Conciseness	2	0.0	Far below required length (12 vs 47 words); underdeveloped and omits essential details.
Organization & Coherence	2	0.0	Lacks logical sequence; fragmented ideas without transitions or unity.
Original Tone & Meaning	2	1.0	Distorts fable's ironic, reflective tone; reduces moral to vague sadness.
Originality & Paraphrasing	2	1.0	Minimal rephrasing; relies on source structure without full originality.
Grammar, & Presentation	1	0.0	Major grammatical errors; incomplete sentences hinder understanding.
Title	5	2.0	Vague and irrelevant; misses core theme of transformation (4 words, but not expressive).

Reasons for Low Score

- Incomplete summary omitting key events and reflection.
- Garbled, ungrammatical language.
- Excessively short length.
- Lack of structure and coherence.
- Distorted original meaning and tone.

Ideal Precis

Title: Insignificant Drop Becomes Priceless Pearl

A drop of water, falling into the sea, lamented its insignificance amid the vast ocean, deeming itself worthless. Swallowed by a nearby oyster mid-soliloquy, it hardened gradually into a pearl. After numerous adventures, it reached a diver's hands and now adorns the Persian crown.

and conciseness. By following these steps, you systematically transform a lengthy passage into a concise and coherent précis while preserving its main ideas and message. Following are the two examples;

Exercise 1: Write a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

A drop of water fell out of the cloud into the sea, and finding itself lost in such an immensity of fluid matter, broke out into the following reflection: "Alas! What an inconsiderable creature am I in this prodigious ocean of waters. My existence is of no concern in the universe; I am reduced to a kind of nothing, and I am the least of the works of God". It so happened that an oyster which lay in the neighbourhood of this drop chanced to gape and swallow it up in the midst of this soliloquy. The drop, say the fables, lay a great while hardening in the shell until by degrees it was ripened into a pearl, falling into the hands of a diver, after a long series of adventures, is at present that famous pearl which is fixed on the top of the Persian crown.

- Expand summary to include key events: oyster incident, pearl formation, drop's reflection, and final crown status.
- Correct garbled phrasing for grammatical clarity and coherence.
- Organize into logical paragraph structure with topic sentence, progression, and closing.
- Increase length substantially to match allocated marks (currently ~12 words).

Drop of Water

Once, a drop fell from cloud into the sea which was sad on its tiny and negligible existence. Suddenly an oyster engulfed it and it turned into pearl after passing through hardening processes. At last, this pearl founded by a diver and fixed on the persian crown
by passing through many hands.

[grammar_language] The language used should be grammatically correct, clear, and suitable for formal academic writing. Rephrase garbled ungrammatical fragment into clear sentence. Fix: fell sadly into the sea, as it was tiny

[brevity_conciseness] The overall length of the answer should match the marks allocated. Dramatically underdeveloped; add details on progression to pearl and reflection for required length.

[organization_coherence] Lacks logical sequence; fragmented ideas without transitions or unity. Irrelevant ending; add transitions, evidence, analysis, and closing to unify paragraph.
